Announcement

Next meeting of GIRT Hamburg on 5th Sept. 2011

Hamburg is further extending its relations with India. The Hanseatic city will be celebrating the "India Week Hamburg" from 16 to 23 October of this year. German-Indian Round Table (GIRT) Hamburg invites its "participants" and other interested persons to its next meeting on September 5th, 2011 to provide detailed information about a week that is set to celebrate India and Indo-Hamburg relations.

We are pleased that Ms. Henriette Hintelmann (International Co-operation Division, Senate Chancellery of Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg) and Mr. Johannes Freudewald (Spokesperson of the India Week Hamburg 2011) will elaborate on the activities planned for a fascinating and rich programme for the India Week covering various aspects such as the culture, social & political issues and economy.

We will of course also dedicate some time to other current issues related to Indo-German relations. The event will also provide the participants an opportunity to share thoughts and do "networking".

The event will take place on Monday, 5th Sept. 2011, at 18:30h in Hotel Baseler Hof (Esplanade 11, 20354 Hamburg).

As usual, the meeting takes place in the form of a "Stammtisch", whereby each participant is expected to consume his or her evening meal at the meeting and pay for own consumption of food and beverages. This is a part of the arrangement with the event venue that allows us not to charge a participation fee.

Participation in this event is possible by invitation. Those interested in receiving an invitation may write to tiwari@tuhh.de by August 31, 2011. Since seating capacity is limited we require binding registration and will send the confirmed participants a written affirmation of the registration prior to the event.
